G20 Development Working Group/ GSG dialogue: Tokyo

“

We will endeavor to further create enabling conditions for resource mobilization from public, private and multilateral resources, including innovative financial mechanisms and partnerships, such as impact investment for inclusive and sustainable growth, in line with the G20 Call on Financing for Inclusive Business.

G20 LEADERS DECLARATION,
BUENOS AIRES, 2018

s a response to the G20 2018 communique, where impact investment was acknowledged as an “innovative financial mechanism”, the Global Steering Group’s Japanese leadership, in partnership with UNDP and UNESCAP, engaged with the G20 Development Working Group (DWG) and other G20 representatives for a high level dialogue in Tokyo, on Wednesday, 23rd January. This was a learning opportunity for G20 officials, and a follow on to discussions had in Buenos Aires in 2018.

Approximately eighty people attended, with G20 representatives from Argentina, Australia, Canada, Chile, EU, France, Italy, Korea, Russia, Saudi Arabia, UK, USA as well as a number of international organisations invited to the G20 discussions, including, UNDP, UNICEF, OECD, UNOPS.

Fifteen experts from diverse organisations such as foundations and investment firms presented their role within the impact investment ecosystem, including some case studies of gender based investing. McKinsey kicked off the day with an outline of impact economies, this was followed by summaries of research findings from the OECD and UNESCAP. The GSG looks forward to continuing engagement with the Development Working Groups and others within the G20.
